

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

FEBRUARY 2021

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

1 Teaching Your Child About Black History.	2 Black History Month All About the Holidays	3 Celebrate Black Leaders	4 Learn All About the Gospel Train	5 Learning About Black Leaders Bingo	6 Racial Justice Hero Bubble
7 13 Children's Books With Strong Black Characters	8 Meet Frederick Douglas	9 Perot Museum Pays Tribute to Black Leaders In The Sciences	10 The African American Migration Story.	11 Meet Malcolm X	12 African American Jockeys	13 U.S. Army's Only Female Buffalo Soldier: Virtual Event
14 Meet Garret Morgan: Inventor of the 3 Light Traffic Light.	15 Learn More About Black Leaders Through Fun Activities	16 Books About Scientists and Inventors	17 How Black Art Can Spark Conversations with Children	18 Thursday Night Lights: The Story of Black High School Football in Texas	19 Make Three Kid-Friendly Rice Dishes: Jambalaya from New Orleans, USA	20 Meet Amanda Gordon
21 Anansi's Rescue from the River	22 Meet Rosa Parks	23 Children's Books to Celebrate Black Culture	24 Talking to Young Children About Race and Racism	25 Meet Sojourner Truth	26 Hambone: An African American Rhythm Technique	27 How Black Art Can Spark Conversations with Children
28 Funky, Bluesy ABCs

FOR MORE ACTIVITIES
AND EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES
FROM KERA VISIT
learn.kera.org/at-home-learning