April 2021

Make everyday EARTH Day

1. Make a nature journal to observe animals.
2. Identify the insects outside with this field guide.
3. Learn how to make a paintbrush with nature's gifts.
4. Learn how harmful littering is with Martha Speaks!
5. Follow a soda can's journey to the ocean.
6. Watch this clip to discover ways to reduce food waste.
7. Go on this nighttime adventure through a corn maze with Buster and DW!
8. Grow seedlings in an egg carton for your own personal garden!
9. Go birdwatching with DIY binoculars.
10. Search for textured treasures outside with Ruff and Smooth scavenger hunt!
11. Sort through trash in this activity to learn what can be recycled.
12. Explore the real truth behind dirt with Sid the Science Kid.
13. Practice taking action to improve your world by playing Arthur's Park.
14. Understand how plants and animals work together with Elinor Wonders Why!
15. Make an ocean jar to see the different layers of the ocean.
16. Use nature's objects as brushes and stamps for this art project.
17. Help the environment by making your own paper.
18. Make a backyard soup with Elinor.
19. Learn how important honeybees are to the environment.
20. Make a book of trees to discover what trees are in your backyard.
21. Create a park explorer kit and find unexpected treasures in your local park!
22. Happy Earth Day! Celebrate Earth Day Every Day with these 6 tips.
23. Watch how wind moves with this DIY Kite.
24. Check out these 10 picture books that encourages outdoor exploration.
25. Explore the outdoors today with these easy steps.
26. Here's a fun Earth Day coloring page!
27. Explore nature with your five senses today!
28. Observe how the sun's appearance affects daylight and night.
29. Make this reusable clothing bag to use on your next shopping trip.
30. Recycle bottle caps for a sunny portrait.

For more activities and educational resources from KERA visit learn.kera.org/at-home-learning